

a hold

the fire in my heart has always felt your frequency

[where did you go]

for so long

your hold on me -

I dreamed you [to me]

waking -

you were there

[delight surprise]

about time

to find you

in the sleepless city (that blots out stars), from the mountains and rivers

next to you in your studio [feeling]

the pulse of big soul flowing

(heart on) open wide

[burning all over again] i adore you

those eyes; that smile

[glowing embers of your spirit]

so soft; you

[behold: beautiful]

so

gentle

amazing

your lips my neck

so sweet(the honey of life)

my lips you

over and over bodyscapes in real time, dreamtime beating true

be

still the night

still my heart

[intense]

craving you(all of you)

I want you close to my body(electric)

closer, still

so much closer

i want to whisper

lettered meter in 1,4,3 [delivered from my heart] to yours

[hold; me]
